

7124
The shrine
among ac-
last days
od. The Takayoshi
Ryoma are

Temple (Yasaka Pagoda) [C2]

551-2417
The temple was established by ku (Shotokutaishi), the first pan. The five-story pagoda is Higashiyama, and offers to go nd floor.

Ho-in Temple [E2]

75-561-0467
The temple belongs to the Tendai Buddhism and features the arters for priests built by ni Hideyoshi and many other assets.

Tel: +81 (0) 75-561-1551 Sennyu-ji Temple is an Imperial Household Family temple (Kogein) and is called "Mitera." Many beautiful cultural treasures are here.

46 Doju-in Temple [G1]

Tel: +81 (0) 75-561-8821
The statue in the temple's hall is of the Buddhist deity Fudo-myoo, also known as the "Juman Fudo."
He is 2.65 meters tall and wears an expression of calm.

45 Tofuku-ji Temple [G2]

Tel: +81 (0) 75-561-0087
Tofuku-ji exhibits the classic architecture of a Zen temple, and is especially famous for its garden (a cultural treasure) that was designed by Shigemori Mirei. Its grounds are one of the best places to view maple trees in Kyoto.

47 Reiun-in Temple [G1]

Tel: +81 (0) 75-561-4080

This dry landscape garden,
or karesansui,
famous for its
unique stones,
was rebuilt by modern garden
designer Shigemo-
ri Mirei.

48 Taiko-an Temple [G1]

Tel: +81 (0) 75-561-0667
Also called Komachi-dera, this temple is famous for an image of Jizo that was made by Onono-Komachi, and an image of Komachi when she was a hundred years old.

49 Ryogin-an Temple [G2]

Tel: +81 (0) 75-561-0087
The Hojo is a National Treasure
and an oldest one in Japan. It's garden was designed by Shigemori Mirei.
The sitting image of Daimyo Kokushi is one of many cultural treasures.

50 Tentoku-in Temple [G1]

Tel: +81 (0) 75-561-5239
There is a dry landscape
garden with beautiful moss, Chinese bellflowers, and bush clover. It is said that the writing on Hoko-ji's famous temple bell was done by this temple's chief priest.

Viewing times may be changed due to renovation; please check ahead.

Kyoto Guidelines
for sustainable tourism

enjoy your stay in Please consider the needs of the living in Kyoto.
Do not block the streets or be noisy.

Environmentally friendly

Please travel with an environmentally friendly bag, and a re-usable water bottle to reduce plastic waste.

Project for Promotion of "Living with Local Communities".

Using environment-friendly vegetable oil ink is certified.

Kyoto Travel Guide

Kyoto City Official Travel Guide

<https://kyoto.travel/en/>

The Kyoto City
Official Travel Guide
homepage provides information on a number of sightseeing activities. It is full of useful information for sightseeing, such as event information, news about the cherry blossoms, and facility information.

Arukumachi Kyoto

<https://www.arukumachikyoto.jp/index.php?lang=en>

A free route search system for buses and trains within Kyoto
City that allows you to easily find the
optimal route, fare,
and travel time by simply entering the departure point and destination.

Inquiries

Kyoto Tourist Information Center
+81(0)75-343-0548
Kyoto City Transport Bureau +81(0)75-863-5200

JR West Japan Customer Center
+81(0)75-753-1111
+81(0)75-753-1111
0570-00-2486