Bengara goshi is a geisha district lined with tea shops. It features pavement made of stones, Tatsumi Daimyojin Shrine, and a beautifully flowing river.

Sanjo street \sim

Shijo street

4 Shoren-in Temple A3 Tel: +81 (0) 75-561-2345

This temple is famous for its garden created sculpture of the Buddhist deity Fudo-myoo

and his attendants is a by Soami and the National Treasure.

This shrine faces Higashiyama Street and the Old Tokaido Road. The Awata Festival, which features a grand parade of decorated floats, is held in October.For the festival, Awata Daitoro (a float adorned with many lanterns) revived in 2008 after 180 years. The festival committee was awarded the Higashiyama 3K grand prize in 2012.

3 Awata Shrine A3

5 Chion-in Temple B3

25 Rokudo-Chinno-ji Temple [2]

Tel: +81(0)75-561-4129 This temple is the entrance to the Toribeno, one of the ancient crematoriums in Kyoto. The sculpture of the Yakushi-nyorai (the Medicine or Healing Buddha) was made by Saicho. There is also an ancient well from which it is said that Ono-no-Takamura (a Heian scholar and poet) passed between this world and the other world.

Tel: +81 (0) 75-561-6980 This temple has historical connections to the tale of Genji and the Heike Clan and also has the most famous statue of the priest Kuya and many superb Bud-

zaka; the path

that continues slope is called up the next small

Ninenzaka. These

the atmosphere of paths still retain old Kyoto.

31 Otani Honbyo Mausoleum (Nishi Otani) D2

Уаѕака street \sim

Gojo street

27 Kiyomizu-dera Temple D3

The founder of this temple is a Shogun Sakanoue Tamuramaro of the Heian Period. The Main Hall (a national treasure) the Niomon Gate and the pagoda (important cultural assets), and the Jojuin garden (a place of scenic beauty) were all designated part of Kyoto's World Heritage Site in 1994.

Tel: +81(0)75-531-4171

This is the mausoleum

for Nishihongan-ji Temple. It is known for the Meganebashi Bridge.

beno cemetery, which

and the large Tori-

28 Jishu Shrine

been famous for good marrige and cherry blossoms since

long ago, was included as part of Kyoto's World

回收银铁铁

million pagoda is covered with Japanese cypress bark. It houses the Koyasu Kannon, which is believed to have performed a miracle for Empress Komyo during the delivery of her child, and has attracted many worshippers for its power for safe

This is operated by the Kyoto Pottery

Kyoto-style ceramics and Kiyomizu Ware products. You can find a large number of Kiyomizu Ware pottery from traditional styles to modern styles on

9 Hanamikoji Path B2

Theater

Tel: +81(0)75-561-1155 The birthplace of Kabuki, this theater's 400-year-old history makes it the oldest theater in Japan. The theater's kaomise performances in December is one of Kyoto's most famous events.

One of Kyoto's most famous streets, lined with beautiful stone-paved Kyo-machiya restaurants and teahouses. In the evening, visitors can see and lanterns shining in front of stores, giving the area a different atmosphere from

This theater, known as Gion of Wind and Thunder") by Ta-

Kobu, is in one of the five famous geisha districts in waraya Sotatsu.

that of the daytime.

Gion, and hosts the spring Mi-

yako-odori

dances in

11 Gion Kobu Kaburenjo Tel: +81(0)75-561-1115

maiko (apprentice geisha)

Chion-in's gate is a Nation-

Daishoro

are famous

Chion-in also boasts seven mysterious things.

al Treasure; the Mieido and Shijo street ^

Yasaka street

five hanamachi districts, is Kamo River to the east, in the area between Shijo and Gojo. The Kyo Odori is held at the Kaburenjo in April. It is currently under construction for reconstruction. Construction is scheduled to be completed in 2025.

located along the

8 Maruyama Park B3

in 1886, Maruyama Koen is Kyoto's oldest park. It is famous for its cherry trees and a statue of Sakamoto Ryoma

30 Ninenzaka Sanneizaka Path

Sannenzaka Path) @

The path that goes steeply downhill northward is Sannenspreads out from behind the mausoleum.

Shichijo street \sim Kujo street

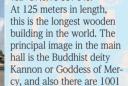

37 Yogen-in Temple(Sotatsu-dera) [ET]

(Higashioji street)

38 Sanjusangen-do Temple(Rengeo-in temple) 🗈 Tel: +81(0)75-561-0467 thousand-armed images placed in this hall.

This shrine was built by Taira-no-Kiyomori. It is famous for a huge camphor tree planted by Emperor Goshirakawa, and is the birthplace of Kyoto Noh.

12 Choraku-ji Temple B3

Famous for its pagoda and numerous flowers that appear as the subjects of poems. It is said that Kenreimon-in was ordained in this

15 Otani Sobyo Mausoleum (Higashi Otani) B3

Tel: +81(0)75-561-0777 The grave of the priest Shinran is located here. The Kyoto night is lit up during the summer Obon Festival of the Dead with some 10,000 paper lanterns (mantoe)

This temple was founded by Nene. the wife of Toyotomi Hidevoshi, who had brought Japan under

O Yasaka Shrine B2

shrine, also called "Gion-san,"

as a lot of cultural assets, and is celebrated every summer in

This large and important

回線 unified rule in the Sengoku period. The temple includes some of the remains of Fushimi Castle, The Ko dai-ji maki-e scroll, which hangs in the Shumidan, is a superb example of art in the Momoyama period.

39 Takinoo Shrine 🗊 Tel: +81(0)75-531-2551

The Main Worship Hall, an old building moved from Kibune Okunoin Shrine, has a superbly carved transom. The Haiden is famous for a wooden carving of a dragon on its ceiling.

South from

Kujo street

(Higashioji street)

42 Sennyu-ji Temple 3

This Kanon-do is famous for an image of

was made by Emperor

Genso-kotei as a tribute to his love for one of the beautiful women in China, Yokihi. The image is worshipped to bring beauty and marriage.

Tel: +81(0)75-561-0087

45 Tofuku-ji Temple 62

Tofuku-ji exhibits the classic architecture of a Zen temple, and is especially famous for its garden (a cultural treasure) that was designed by Shigemori Mirei. Its grounds are one of the Seikanon-bosatsu, which

The famous painting on fusuma has been attributed to Hasegawa

43 Yokihi Kannon-do Temple @

Tohaku of the Hasegawa School and is representative of the artistic culture of the Momoyama period. The garden is one of Kyoto's most famous

44 Unryu-in Temple G3 is 108 tatami mats in size, features a huge ink painting of two dragons. The

Tel: +81(0)75-561-6363

14 Kennin-ji Temple 🖸

This temple was founded by the priest

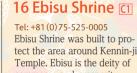

Eisai. The ceiling of the main hall, which temple also keeps the famous painting

Fuujinraijinzu ("Gods

Chinese

21 Ryozen Kannon

Temple C3

Tel: +81(0)75-561-2205

This 24-meter tall image of the Kannon deity was built to honor those who died in World War

II. Inside is an image

Buddhist deity, Senjyu

Kannon Bosatsu, and a sculpture of Buddha

gurdian for Junishi,

of an eleven-faced

17 Yasui Konpiragu Shrine [2]

22 Ishibe-koji [2]

Ishibe-koji is a narrow stone path that runs from Shimogawara-dori to "Nene-no-michi."

The path gives the appearance of a stone landscape with elements of restaurants and inns surrounded by stone walls.

19 Kodai-ji Sho Museum 🖂 Tel:+81 (0) 75-561-1414

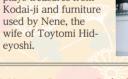

18 Entoku-in Temple cz

This temple is one of subtemples of Kodai-ji and the garden was moved from Fushimi Castle. The images painted on the sliding doors (fusuma-e) by Hasegawa Tohaku have been designated as

This museums displays treasures from Kodai-ii and furniture used by Nene, the objects, images and models of people

active at that time.

Built in 1868, the shrine was popular among activists from the last days of the Edo period. The graves of Kido Takayoshi and Sakamoto Ryoma are upto its second floor.

Tel: +81 (0) 75-551-2417

Tel: +81 (0) 75-561-1551 回路線 Sennyu-ii Temple is an Imperial Household Family temple (Kogein) and is called "Mitera." Many beautiful cultural treasures are

46 Doju-in Temple 61

Tel: +81(0)75-561-8821
The statue in the temple's hall is of the Buddhist deity Fudo-myoo, also known as the "Juman Fudo." He is 2.65 meters tall and wears an expression of calm.

best places to view maple trees in Kyoto. 47 Reiun-in Temple [61]

This dry landscape garden, famous for its was rebuilt by modern garden

48 Taiko-an Temple G1

The Main Hall, noted architrait of Emperor Goenyuin.

the deity of wea

tecturally for is gabled roof, is for a rare image of Daikokuten

Tel: +81(0)75-561-0667 Also called Komachi-dera, this temple is famous for an image of Jizo that was made by Ono-no-Komachi, and an image of Komachi when she was a hundred years old.

Gojo street \sim Shichijo street

Travel

Light

Tel: +81(0)75-561-7676 The Daibutsuden was built by Toyotomi Hideyoshi. There is also a large stone wall and a famous bronze temple

Please be considerate when traveling

Consider dropping your luggage off in a luggage locker or sending it ahead.

If you have large luggage, please use a

Travel

around Kyoto with luggage.

taxi or the trains.

Tel: +81(0)75-561-3802 This shrine celebrates Toyotomi Hidevoshi. The Karamon Gate is a National Treasure and was once part of the architecture of Fushimi Castle. Enjoy the gourd-shaped emma or votive tablet in front of the gate.

35 Kyoto National Museum [1]

23 Ryozen Museum of History [3]

Built in 1970, this museum

between the end of the Edo covers the historical times

period and the Meiji Restoration, and displays the

The old main building (special exhibition hall) made of red brick, completed during the Meiji period, is an important cultural asset. The 13-story Stone Pagoda of Umamachi and a replica of Rodin's "The Thinker" are the main features of the garden. The Collections Galleries hall "Heisei Chishinkan Wing" will open in September 2014.

36 Myoho-in Temple [2]

This ancient temple was established by Regent of Japan. The five-story pagoda is a symbol of Higashiyama, and offers to go

Prince Shotoku(Shotokutaishi), the first

This temple belongs to the Tendai sect of Buddhism and features the living quarters for priests built by Toyotomi Hideyoshi and many other cultural assets.

49 Ryogin-an Temple 62

Tel: +81 (0) 75-561-008 The Hojo is a National Treasure and an oldest one in Japan. It's garden was designed by Shigemori Mirei. The sitting image of Daimyo Kokushi is one of many cultura treasures.

There is a dry landscape garden with beautiful moss, Chinese bellflowers, and bush

Tel: +81(0)75-561-5239

bell was done by this temple's chief priest.

clover. It is said that the writing on Hoko-ii's famous temple

Viewing times may be changed due to renovation; please check ahead

Tips for a sustainable tourism in Kyoto

Kyoto,please consider the needs of the people living in Kyoto. Please do not block the streets or be

Kyoto Travel Guide https://kyoto.travel/en/

50 Tentoku-in Temple [1]

Kyoto City Official Travel Guide The Kyoto City

Official Travel Guide homepage provides information on a number of sightseeing activities. It is full of useful information for sightseeing, such as event information, news about the cherry blossoms, and facility

Arukumachi Kyoto https://www.arukumachikyoto.jp/index.php?lang=en system for buses and trains within Kyoto City that allows you to easily find the 回旋锁线 optimal route, fare, and travel time by simply entering the

A free route search departure point and destination.

le sightseeing spots with the "park-and-ride" method of pa https://www2.city.kyoto.lg.jp/tokei/trafficpolicy/kankochi/park_ride.htm

Avoid the crowds by checking on congestion at your destination and by friendly

Kyoto Guidelines

Harmonization of Citizens' Life and Tourism in Cooperation with Local Communities".

Using environment-friendly vegetable oil ink is certified

JR West Japan Customer Center 0570-00-2486

Smart using the trains. Enjoy comfortable sightseeing without traffic jams!

This printed material was created with the "FY2023 Subsidy for Promotion of